

Summer Camp Volunteers

Position Descriptions

Summer Camp Faculty:

- Job Description:

Dorm Parent: Adult male and female leaders are assigned to sleep in a dorm and supervise the campers in their dorm and to mentor them throughout the week. At least two adults are assigned to each sleeping area. Responsibilities include making sure kids are in bed before lights out, waking kids up and making sure they are to their first activity on-time, finding teachable moments to help campers see Jesus, and ensuring the safety of all campers

Family Group Leader: Male and female leaders are assigned to a group of campers for the week, which we call family groups. Dorm Parents often serve as Family Group leaders in addition to the dorm parent role. Family group leaders guide discussions, lead debrief, and help kids see what God is trying to say to them. Often speakers supply questions for what they will be teaching to help guide the discussion.

- Participation in some of the camp electives are by family groups. We ask our family group leaders to participate with the students during these activities

Elective Leader: Monday through Thursday at each week of camp, campers will participate in electives, an elective leader teaches a sport, skill or subject and helps campers see how they can glorify God with their knowledge or skill. Leading an elective can be a 1.5 hour commitment each week, a daily commitment for the summer or just one session, or a full week commitment.

Speaker: Preaching or teaching at summer camp can be a one session commitment or a week-long role. There are two main sessions each day and usually a campfire every night. Because of our new format in 2019, we will need more quality preachers and teachers than ever before.

Day Camp Assistant: Day Camp Assistants work with the Lead Teachers to guide a group of 5-12 year olds through lessons, crafts, activities, meals, and pool time for the day. This role can be a one day commitment (8:00-5:00) or more regular if you are available.

Worship Leader: We would love to have a worship leader or band for every main session. If you are gifted and willing to lead campers in worship we need you this summer. Because we will often be running 3 main sessions at the same time, we will need more worship leaders than in past summers.
